Dulwich Park is a charming expanse of open ground, pleasantly laid out with walks and flower beds, and abounding in delightful scenes such as here depicted. The Park was presented to the public in 1890 by the governors of the College, and covers an area of 72 acres. It is one of the many attractions which make Dulwich a popular residence for City men.

With much love and all best wishes I am Yours very Sincerely Alice

Dear Mrs Uden
Thanks very much for card that you sent us. This morning I overslept myself & got up at 10 o'clock. I had a bad throat & cough last night but it is better this morning. I am going to stay in bed today & tomorrow. I shall be all right by Monday. I am sorry to hear that you have been ill. I hope you will soon be better. I am sending you a book which I have just finished reading. I think you will like it. I am sending them to you by parcel post. I hope you will get them safely. I will write to you again when I get up. With love from Ethel
